DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the switching device, the integration circuit, the compensation circuit and the evaluation circuit must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 4-8 and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant fails to provide an adequate written description of the switching device, the integration circuit, the compensation circuit and the evaluation circuit.

Claims 4-8 and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Applicant fails to provide an adequate enablement of the switching device, the integration circuit, the compensation circuit and the evaluation circuit.

Art Unit: 2832

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 4-8 and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 4, applicant should clarify the structure/arrangement of the switching device, the integration circuit, the compensation circuit and the evaluation circuit. Applicant should clarify the secondary winding relative to the compensation winding.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6 and 9-10, as best understood in view of the rejections under 35 USC 112 first and second paragraph, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Albrecht et al. [DE 42 30 939].

Albrecht et al. discloses a current transformer [see figure] comprising :

- a primary winding [4] ;
- a core [2] having an air gap;

Art Unit: 2832

- a Hall sensor [11] disposed in the air gap;
- a secondary/compensation winding [5] wound about the core;
- additional winding [14];
- evaluation circuit [17]; and
- AC and DC source.

Regarding claims 1-3 and 9, the claimed method steps would necessitate by the apparatus shown by Albrecht et al.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 7-8 and 11-12, as best understood in view of the rejection under 35 USC 112 first and second paragraph, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Albrecht et al.

The specific type of sensor use for the magnetic field sensor would have been an obvious design consideration based on the intended application use.
